STIPULATION AND AGREED ORDER OF DISMISSAL WITH PREJUDICE

I. STIPULATION

Kent Ries, Trustee (the “Trustee”), the plaintiff in this Adversary Proceeding, and Leslie Pritchard (“Pritchard,” with the Trustee, the “Parties”), the liquidator for the defendants in this Adversary Proceeding, hereby stipulate and agree as follows:

1. The Parties have entered into that certain comprehensive, multi-party Mutual Settlement and Release Agreement (the “Agreement”), which Agreement provides for the dismissal with prejudice of this Adversary Proceeding with each Party herein bearing its respective fees and costs. The Agreement has been approved by the Bankruptcy Court and both the Trustee and Pritchard have all necessary approval and authority to execute the Agreement. The Agreement has become effective.

2. Therefore, the Parties stipulate to the DISMISSAL WITH PREJUDICE of this Adversary Proceeding, with each Party bearing its respective fees and expenses incurred herein, without prejudice to the reimbursement of the same from their respective estates.

II. ORDER

The Court, having reviewed the above Stipulation and incorporating its definitions into this Order, and finding that the Stipulation is lawful and appropriate, it is hereby:

ORDERED that the Stipulation is Approved;

ORDERED that this Adversary Proceeding is DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE, with each Party bearing its respective fees and expenses incurred herein, without prejudice to the reimbursement of the same from their respective estates.
